Students may not withdraw from this class after the add/drop period ends without the permission of the professor and the Assistant Dean for Experiential Education. The Assistant Dean will grant such withdrawal requests only when remaining enrolled in the course would cause significant hardship for the student.

- Global Law of Work with Professor Fredrickson: This course will have a take-home exam.
- Surveillance and Civil Rights (Fieldwork Practicum) with Professor Bedoya: This course no longer requires a prerequisite. This course requires professor permission to enroll. Students must submit a resume, transcript (unofficial is fine), and a 300-word Statement of Interest in the body of an email to Professor Alvaro Bedoya (amb420@georgetown.edu (Alvaro.Bedoya@law.georgetown.edu)) by 5:00 p.m. on June 22, 2020. After the June 22 application deadline, students will be admitted into open seats on a rolling basis. Any student who is offered a seat in this course will be directly enrolled and will have one week only in which to drop. After that time, a student may only drop the course with the permission of the professor and the Assistant Dean of Experiential Education. Permission will be granted only if remaining in the practicum would cause significant hardship to the student. Students must participate in a mandatory orientation to take place from noon to 2pm each day from Monday, August 24 to Thursday, August 27th.
