

M.B.A FROM HEC-PARIS

Students will spend the first year studying the core requirements of HEC's flagship MBA program including English language proficiency, leadership development and career-building components of the curriculum. The second year will be spent at Georgetown Law undertaking either a specialized or general LL.M. program. Graduates will receive both the MBA degree from HEC and the LL.M. from Georgetown upon completion of the two-year program.

Applicants to this program must have a degree in law and at least three years of professional experience.
