

Georgetown University Law Center
Employment Statistics for U.S. Trained Tax LL.M. Graduates

CLASS OF 2018

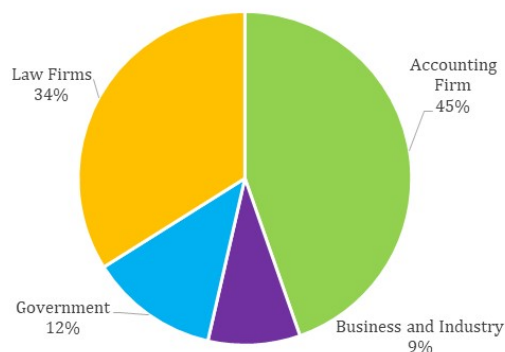

Employed at Graduation

Employed at Graduation¹

	2018	2017	2016
Employed	95%	94%	99%
Not Employed/ Unidentified	5%	6%	1%

Employer Type

Employer Type

	2018	2017	2016
Law Firm	34%	36%	31%
Accounting Firm	45%	46%	47%
Government ²	12%	9%	12%
Business and Industry ³	9%	9%	10%

Employment by Region

Employment by Region

	2018	2017	2016
Mid-Atlantic (DC, MD, VA, DE, WV)	38%	58%	58%
Northeast (NY, MA, PA, NJ, CT, RI, VT, NH, ME)	26%	13%	23%
Midwest (IL, MI, MO, OH, WI, IA, IN, KS, ND, NE, SD)	5%	5%	10%
South (TX, FL, GA, LA, TN, NC, SC, AL, MS, KY, AR, OK)	19%	12%	5%
West (CA, WA, AZ, CO, NV, OR, UT, AK, ID, MT, NM, WY)	8%	10%	4%
International	3%	2%	0%

¹ Adopts the definition used for J.D. programs reporting statistics to U.S. News and World Report, and includes February, May and October 2018 U.S.-Trained Tax LL.M. Graduates who are employed full-time as of October 2018.

² Includes clerkships at the U.S. Tax Court and positions at the IRS Office of Chief Counsel and the Department of Justice (Tax Division), among others.

³ Includes students working for corporations, banks, consulting firms, and tax publications, among others.

Employment by Accounting Firms

Employment by Accounting Firms

	2018	2017	2016
"Big Four" Accounting Firms ⁴	84%	96%	93%
Other Accounting Firms	16%	4%	7%

⁴ "Big Four" Accounting Firms include PwC, Deloitte, Ernst & Young or KPMG.