LAWJ-610 Week One Teaching Fellows 1 TBD MTWR SR & Paper

Note This course requires professor permission to enroll. Interested students should upload a resume and one-page statement of interest to the Box folder, Week_One.9iptm1onaic2lvqo@u.box.com by September 6, 2016. If a student wishes to work with a particular professor or Week One course, they should indicate this in their statement of interest. First-year Week One courses are currently being scheduled and will be posted in the Curriculum Guide during Summer 2016.

Note: This course is open to upperclass J.D., LL.M., and S.J.D. students. While students do not need to have taken a first-year J.D. Week One course to apply, they should indicate if they have and include the course title and professor in their statement of interest. Students who have been fellows in the past should contact Margaret Gerety, Assistant Dean for Experiential Learning, at meg239@law.georgetown.edu, about the option of serving again for a different Week One course or as a "Senior Teaching Fellow" or "Head Fellow."

Note: WEEK ONE COURSE. This course will meet on the following days: Monday, January 9, 2017 through Thursday, January 12, 2017 during the classroom meeting times for the course to which the fellow has been assigned. This course is mandatory pass/fail and will not count toward the 7 credit pass/fail limit for J.D. students.

Note: ATTENDANCE AT ALL CLASS SESSIONS IS MANDATORY. After accepting an offer, the student may drop the course ONLY with the permission of the faculty member and Margaret Gerety, Assistant Dean of Experiential Learning. Permission is granted only where remaining enrolled in the course would cause significant hardship to the student.
